The Live landing page

The Live landing page lets you see everyone who's live! To navigate to it, simply click Live:

Navigation

Clicking 'Now live' will take you to a dashboard giving you a sample of live Creators, most popular creators, and new Creators on Live. Clicking 'View more' next to any category or the category will filter your page results:

You can also filter via the top bar menu:

Click on a Creator's icon to visit their Live room! Be sure to show your appreciation! Find out more in How do I tip a Creator during a live show?

Upcoming Live Shows

To boost visibility for upcoming live shows and drive more traffic and engagement, we've introduced the Upcoming Live Shows section. This new feature allows you to view scheduled shows, set reminders, share events, and engage with Creators!

Now Live!

The 'Now Live' tab shows which Creators are currently live, sorted by tokens earned since the beginning of the month. This is list shows Creators in the following order:

- Currently live Creators, ranked by tokens earned in the calendar month
- Private Show Creators, ranked by tokens earned in the calendar month
- Creators who aren't live, ranked by tokens earned in the calendar month

Best of the Hour

The Best of the hour badge will display on the account that has had the most tokens spent on them in the last hour window, and has remained Live into the next hour. This badge only displays if your stream is currently active.

Live Creators

This lander displays all creators who have gone Live at least once in the last 6 months, ordered by the most recent time they went live.

How to Get Notified When a Creator is Live

Interested in an upcoming scheduled broadcast? Simple click the notification bell icon on the scheduled show under the Creators Live tab.
